

Society Hill in TV Series & New Holiday Party Venue

Television Producer from San Francisco Shines Spotlight on Society Hill

This Wednesday November 15th 7:30 PM
Pennsylvania Hospital Auditorium
- Light Refreshments

Society Hill Civic Association (SHCA) invites everyone to the November 15 General Membership Meeting, which will feature a presentation by Ron Blatman, executive producer of the television series Saving the City: Remaking the American Metropolis. Ron who is based in San Francisco was the producer of the award winning PBS series Saving the Bay. Ron Blatman will give us a behind-the-scenes look at his current project, a 13-part national series that highlights successful and unsuccessful examples of urban development throughout the U.S. and Canada. Philadelphia, along with Pittsburgh and Los Angeles, will be featured in the first episode. Film crews from the new series were in Society Hill filming and interviewing in October. Ron is particularly interested in the mid-century redevelopment of Society Hill under urban planner Ed Bacon and preservationist, Charles Peterson. Come be the first to hear about this important television series featuring Philadelphia, and Society Hill in particular, from its executive producer.

We cordially invite you to the

Society Hill Civic Association Holiday Social

Wednesday December 6, 2017 from 6:00 - 7:30 PM

The Twisted Tail
On Headhouse Square

509 S 2nd St, 2nd floor

$15 per person cover for SHCA members
Hors d'oeuvres included
Cash bar
$5 house wine and draft beers

RSVP by Thursday November 30

Payment is required with your RSVP so that we can provide the restaurant with an accurate count. Your name tag will be provided when you arrive at the restaurant.

Please mail your check for $15 per person to the SHCA with your name(s):
Name(s) of member(s):

SHCA, P.O. 63503, Philadelphia, PA 19147
Any questions, please e-mail Mattdejulio@aol.com

Society Hill residents who are not members are most welcome to join us and meet their neighbors if they sign up for SHCA membership and remit $15 per person cover charge
